Miles from Fluvanna County

Charlottesville: 18 miles
Richmond: 55 miles
Washington, DC: 118 miles
Roanoke: 132 miles
Bristol/Johnson City: 18 miles

Business
Groceries, Gas, Banks and Shopping can be found around the communities of Fork Union, Lake Monticello, Palmyra, Scottsville, and Zion Crossroads.

Nature and Outdoor Recreation

Pleasant Grove Park (6)
22 mile trail system for hiking, biking, and horseback riding.
Fishing, picnicking disc golf and wildlife viewing areas.

Lake Monticello, Palmyra, communities of Fork Union, his Bremo plantation.

Built by General Cocke to provide a place of worship and instruction for slaves on his Bremo plantation.

Lake Monticello is in the gently rolling hills of Fluvanna County. It's 50 acres of lovely wooded shoreline guarantees a quiet and restful visit.

Rivanna River (7)
Fishing, paddling, tubing, & splashing.

Scottsville.
Before there were railroads, there were canals.

Canal Basin Square (3)
Year-round history park in downtown Scottsville.

Pleasant Grove House
Rivanna River & Wildlife Management Area (9)
Natural area, trout fishing, primitive camping, boat ramp, hunting and trapping.

Scheler Natural Area (10)
Educational programs and trail system.

Rivanna Lake lies in the gently rolling hills of Fluvanna County.

Revolutionary War General John Hartwell Cocke, the owner of Bremo plantation and a friend of Thomas Jefferson, served as one of the five commissioners who drafted plans for both the courthouse and jail and took primary responsibility for their final appearance.

Maggie's House (2)
A restoration of an 1840's plantation home where you'll find a friendly welcome and lots more information for your visit.

Holland-Page Place (4)

Revolutionary War General John Hartwell Cocke, the owner of Bremo plantation and a friend of Thomas Jefferson, served as one of the five commissioners who drafted plans for both the courthouse and jail and took primary responsibility for their final appearance.

General John Hartwell Cocke, the owner of nearby Bremo plantation and a friend of Thomas Jefferson, served as one of the five commissioners who drafted plans for both the courthouse and jail and took primary responsibility for their final appearance.

Beach/Oceanfront

Point of Fork was an arsenal established in the 18th century located near what was once the Town of Columbia. In May 1781, General Cornwallis sent a smallbody of Rangers to raid and capture Point of Fork.

Historical Courthouse (2)
As one of the five commissioners who drafted plans for both the courthouse and jail and took primary responsibility for their final appearance.

The Bremo Slave Chapel was constructed in 1835 and is the only one of its kind known to exist in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Monticello
Home of Thomas Jefferson, Charlottesville

Also Nearby

MONTICELLO
Home of Thomas Jefferson, Charlottesville

MONTPELIER
Home of James and Dolley Madison, Montpelier Station, Orange

HIGHLAND
Home of James Monroe, Charlottesville

Also Nearby:

Points of Interest:

Highway 53. It was renovated in 2014 into a museum and welcome center.

The Bremo Slave Chapel was constructed in 1835 and is the only one of its kind known to exist in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Charlottesville 18 miles
Monticello - 21 miles

Monticello

Palmyra

Virginina is for lovers

Virginia is for lovers

Monticello

Palmyra

Virginina is for lovers
We’re glad you have chosen to visit Fluvanna. We have so much to offer, from rolling hills and scenic mountain views to all the great outdoor recreation activities - hiking, paddling, fishing, primitive camping, horseback riding and mountain biking.

We also offer a host of historic treasures, a performing arts center, and a variety of seasonal events for your enjoyment.

For detailed information while planning your visit, check out our tourism site:

VisitFluvanna.org

Also stop by the Pleasant Grove House Museum and Welcome Center, located at Pleasant Grove Park. Our staff will offer a friendly “hello” and answer any questions you may have while visiting.

Fluvanna is located in Virginia’s Piedmont, the rolling uplands east of the Blue Ridge where world-class attractions lay nearby in every direction. Served up by some of the friendliest folks you will ever meet, Fluvanna is a great place to live, learn, work and play.

Things to do

Golf at Lake Monticello
(434) 589-3075 | www.lakemonticellogolf.org

U.S. 76 Cross Country Bike Route
www.adventurecycling.org

Cunningham Creek Winery at Middle Fork Farm
(434) 207-3907 | www.cunninghamcreek.wine

Thistle Gate Vineyard
(434) 289-7781 | www.thistlegatevineyard.com

Fork Union Military Academy
(434) 842-3212 | www.forkunion.com

Cunningham Creek Winery at Middle Fork Farm
(434) 207-3907 | www.cunninghamcreek.wine

James River Reeling and Rafting
(434) 296-4366 | www.reelingandrafting.com

Blue Ridge Ballooning
(434) 589-6213 | www.blueridgeballoon.com

Fluvanna Parks and Rec
(434) 589-2016 | www.fluvannacounty.org

Central Virginia Sporting Clays
(434) 591-0215 | www.centralvassportingclays.com

Fruit Hill Orchard
(434) 981-9208 | www.fruithillorchard.com

Antioch Brewing Company
www.antiochbrews.com

Fluvanna River Company
(434) 218-2052 | www.fluvannarivercompany.com

Red Rocker Candy, Factory & Store
www.redrockercandy.com

Scottsville
www.scottsville.org

Events

Radio Control Flying Club Open House
(434) 962-8685 | http://fcrcfc.org

Farmers Market *
(434) 589-2016 | www.fluvannacounty.org

Old Farm Day *
(434) 589-9405 | www.oldfarmday.org

Quetzal Kite Festival *
(434) 589-2016 | www.fluvannacounty.org

James River Batteau Festival
www.vacanals.org

Fluvanna County Fair *
(434) 589-2016 | www.fluvannacounty.org

* Held at Pleasant Grove Park

We respect our rural heritage and maintain a pace of life that is comfortable. We value family and tradition, while welcoming newcomers into the mix.