

Bio of Dan N. Whitten

Dan N. Whitten has been the County Attorney in Fluvanna County since June 5, 2023. He has been involved in public service since 2009. Whitten previously served as County Attorney in Prince George County, Virginia and Warren County, Virginia.

A native of Albemarle County, Virginia, Whitten is a graduate of the University of Virginia as well as the College of William & Mary's Marshall-Wythe School of Law.

During law school, Whitten interned for the Honorable Lamar W. Sizemore in Macon, Georgia and in the Civil Litigation Division of the Virginia Attorney General's Office. After graduating from law school, Whitten completed a post-graduate fellowship at the Richmond City Attorney's Office.

Whitten holds a professional membership in the Local Government Attorneys of Virginia (LGA). He currently serves on the LGA Conference Policy Committee and previously served on the LGA Ethics Committee and Outreach Committee. He also previously served as a member of the Rappahannock County Board of Zoning Appeals. Whitten is admitted to practice in the United States District Court for both the Eastern District of Virginia and the Western District of Virginia.

Whitten is married and has three children. His hobbies include mountain biking, hiking and camping. He has been a volunteer youth coach in both soccer and mountain biking.