

Visit Fluvanna's Farm Heritage Museum, and step back in time!

The museum has an array of exhibits displaying old farm relics, including horse-drawn modes of transportation, an assortment of plows, planters, harvesting equipment and two classic fully restored tractors.

In addition, there is a varied range of old tools and accessories used by rural families in the past two centuries.

In the realistic blacksmith shop there are forges, anvils, blacksmith tools, an array of hand forged items, plus wheelwright and cooperage tools, all used long ago.
